Step
1

Choose Bóthar as your charity.

Step
2

Invite a Bóthar speaker to come to your school
to learn about the work Bóthar does.

Step
3

Organise a small fundraiser to raise awareness about Bóthar

Step
4

Evaluate the impact that Irish dairy cows will have on struggling families in the developing world. Get your students to think about how their lives differ?

Step

Write a report on the project and submit.

HOW MANY COWS WILL YOU BE ABLE TO SEND?

Each cow will help one family in the developing world.

Jim Gavin
Dublin GAA
Football Manager

"It's really about helping people to help themselves, to give people the gift of a cow. The nutrition that it brings to the families is life-changing."

Maura Derrane
RTÉ Presenter

"Bóthar is making its mark, transforming lives through donations of cows and other income and food producing animals, gifts from the Irish public."

Tommy Fleming
Singer

"We spent a week there in the summer when it was actually warmer back home. We got out into the heart of Rwanda to meet families, whose daily lives are about survival. We met with genocide widows and saw first-hand how the gift of Irish cows to them has transformed their lives."

Get on board & back Bóthar this year!

Thank you so much to the 5th year students of Rice College, Ennis, Co. Clare who raised €600 to send an Irish dairy goat and bees and chicks to struggling families in the developing world. They are pictured here with teacher Brid Ronan and Maureen Purcell from Bóthar. Thank you for changing lives.

Congratulations to the Transition year students from Coláiste Éinde, Salthill, Co. Galway who took part in a Halloween dress up to raise funds to put towards sending an in-calf heifer to the developing world. They raised an AMAZING €1,044. Well done everyone.

Well done to the students of Coláiste Naomh Cormac, Kilmac, Co. Offaly, who organised a delicious fundraiser "Buns for Bóthar" and raised €200 for Bóthar. Rumour has it everyone was looking for the recipe for a certain lemon drizzle cake. Thank you to all involved.
